

THE REAL DEAL

SOUTH FLORIDA REAL ESTATE NEWS

Barneys New York eyes Bal Harbour Shops

Luxury retailer could become a part of the mall's 350,000-square-foot expansion

May 20, 2014 03:00PM

The Bal Harbour Shops and Barneys New York

Barneys New York is interested in possibly adding a store to the Bal Harbour Shops, according to Marc Perlowitz, an executive at the luxury clothing chain.

“We asked the council [for] an expeditious take on the plan,” Perlowitz said at a recent workshop at the Sea View Hotel. “That will certainly assist us in our final determination.”

Currently, the Bal Harbour Shops is planning a 350,000-square-foot expansion that will add at least 20 specialty retail boutiques, a luxury theater and a multi-purpose community plaza, according to the Miami Herald. If approved, the $300 million expansion would be completed as early as 2018. [\[Miami Herald\]](#) – Christopher Cameron